

What a Star Air Commodore Chris Green was, along with his partner Jane, when they attended our 50th Reunion at the Park House Hotel, Shifnal, as guests of honour on the 29 May 2010.

They made light of coming in the wrong hotel entrance and found themselves on a red carpet, which was placed there for an earlier wedding. At the time, they thought we had somehow organised it for them. How they laughed.

Their presence made the whole night special and Air Commodore Green's speech re-captured 1960, along with bringing us up to date on the latest training developments.

You will be sadly missed, Sir.

Dave Stinson,
On behalf of the 40th Entry RAF Cosford Boy Entrants 1960-1961

Thursday 2nd June 2011 - RAF Cosford College Flags at half-mast outside College HQ today, 02 June, in tribute to Air Commodore Chris Green, whose funeral took place at 1210 hrs at RAF Cranwell.

